

Deborah K. White

Current Occupation	Retired 2017
Past Work Experience	Mercy Hospital St. Louis, MO Supervisor, Pulmonary Function Laboratory 2007-2017 Washington University School of Medicine Dept. of Pediatrics, St. Louis Children's Hospital St. Louis, MO Supervisor, Pulmonary Function Laboratory 1987-2007 Relevant to both positions: 30 years' experience in performing, and supervising pulmonary function testing in patients from infancy to adulthood. Responsibilities included clinical and managerial supervision, participation in medical research trials, data management and didactic teaching to respiratory therapy students and training physicians. Publications included multiple medical journals and several book chapters in relevant respiratory therapy and pulmonary function texts.
Involvement with the HSH	Member since 2017 upon moving to Hammonton Trustee from 2018-Present 2019 – Chaired committee to conduct historical house tour and basket raffle for fund raising purposes 2022- Current chairperson for 'Cataloging and Curating' museum collections. Also, chairperson for 'Special Events' committee
Education and/or Certifications	1974-B.S. in Forest Zoology, SUNY at Environmental Science and Forestry 1974-A.A.S. in Respiratory Therapy , SUNY at Upstate Medical Center 1975- Registered Respiratory Therapist 1989- Registered Pulmonary Function Technologist 2003- Licensure as Respiratory Care Practitioner in Missouri