

R. Gregory White

Current Occupation	Retired
Past Work Experience	Designs In Motion Chesterfield, Missouri Owner 1995 – 2014 Founded unique small business and retail showroom catering to serious automotive enthusiasts. Approx 2,500 high quality diecast model cars, automotive books, artwork. Personal client collection coaching and race histories shared. Annual sales peak $600,000. British American Consulting Group (BACG, Inc) Naperville, Illinois Senior Business Consultant, Manager Merchandising Consulting Group 1994 - 1995 Drawing on extensive senior management buying-merchandising experience in the retail and wholesale Food Distribution industry, provided opinions and guidance to management of major companies. Wetterau Incorporated Hazelwood, Missouri Vice President, Sales and Procurement 1984 – 1994 Supervised corporate grocery, meat, produce, deli, HBA, military and international marketing departments across 13 eastern US distribution centers, managing a corporate staff of 70. Spearheaded many new endeavors during tenure. Annual corporate wholesale/retail sales of $5-billion, now part of Supervalu, Inc., Minneapolis, MN.
Involvement with the HSH	Nearly 5 years, 3 years Vice President and current President for 2022. Developed and refined file system reviewing archived documents and records for easier retrieval and reference. Maintained HSH operations through 18 months of Covid restrictions.
Education and/or Certifications	B.S., Business Administration, State University of NY, Oswego
Other Volunteer Activities	American Red Cross, Service to the Armed Forces, 2018 – Present. Working in support of active military and veteran families, including managing a unique Food Cupboard/Pantry operation over the past 4 years, distributing 1-2 tons of food weekly to those in need.