

Historical Society of Hammonton

Press Release

The Historical Society of Hammonton will open its 2010 season with a free community program to be held this Thursday, January 7th at 8:00 PM at the Atlantic County Library in Hammonton.

Speaker for the evening will be Joe Rodio. Joe, with deep roots in Rosedale, will present a program based on its history, its citizen, the many Rodios, and the interaction with Hammonton.

Please join us for what promises to be an informative and entertaining evening.

Refreshments will be served when you will have an opportunity to meet the speaker and HSH members.
