

John Fidler

Current Occupation	Retired - FAA William J. Hughes Technical Center (WJHTC) Atlantic City International Airport, NJ Manager – Architectural and Electrical Engineering Section Facilities Engineering Branch (2001-2017) Managed various design and construction projects for major facility renovation work on over 150 buildings. In addition, prepared and managed the Facility Capital Improvement Program budget for the entire WJHTC campus
Past Work Experience	Northern Division, Naval Facilities Engineering Command U.S. Navy, Philadelphia Naval Shipyard Philadelphia, PA Supervisor – Architectural, Cost Estimating and Quality Control Branch Facilities Engineering Department (1982-2001) Managed the designs for new and renovated facilities at U.S. Naval bases throughout the northeastern United States. Prepared and reviewed budget estimates for facility construction work and implemented procedures for quality assurance of contracted design work.
Involvement with the HSH	Volunteer (member) for 3 years Trustee since 2021 Chairman of Audit Committee since 2022 Chairman of Museum Capital Projects/Renovation Committee since 2022
Education and/or Certifications	Bach. of Architecture, Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago, IL, 1978 Registered Architect, PA since 1990 Registered Architect, NJ since 1998 Project Management Professional (PMP) as certified by the Project Management Institute since 2011
Other Volunteer Activities	NJ Reefers Club member (Reef aquarium keepers club)