

Press Release

The Historical Society of Hammonton invites the public to free community program to be held at Frog Rock Golf & Country Club on Thursday, September 2, 2010 8:00 PM.

Speaker for the evening will be Anthony Guerere who will recount his life of music. Anthony began guitar lessons at the age of six and by the time he was 12 was performing regularly on the Tony Grant show at the Steel Pier in Atlantic City.

He graduated from Hammonton High School where he was Student Director of the High School Band .On graduation night took home all science, math and music awards plus receiving a four year scholarship to the now College of New Jersey where he earned both Bachelor and Masters Degrees in Music Education.

Returning to Hammonton High School Anthony was Band Director from 1959 to 1987. The band grew in numbers to over 200 members, won numerous awards, excelled in every area and became a memorable lifetime experience for all.

On September 12th at 3:00 PM at the Hammonton High's performing Arts Center Anthony will present," Hammonton High School Band Reunion (1960s, 1970s, 1980s)." The film will then be given to the Historical Society of Hammonton where it will be preserved in their archives.

Come out Thursday evening and enjoy the story of his musical journey spanning nearly 70 years.

Refreshments will be served.